

FRENCH CAPTURE 530 PRISONERS WEST OF ANTHEUIL

The Poilus Also Take About Thirty Machine Guns

PARIS, July 9.—The war office announcement tonight says: "South of the Aisne an enemy counter-attack in the region of Chavigny farm failed. "The number of prisoners captured in the attack this morning west of Antheuil is 530. We also took about thirty machine guns. "Eastern theater July 8: Between the Devoll river and the Tormoria our troops captured after bitter fighting, all of the Bofnia Crest between Cafe Bict and Mali Gaperit. We took 130 prisoners. On the left flank the Tormoria captured the heights of Cafe Devris and continued to advance on the left bank of the Tormoria. Enemy infantry and artillery displayed great activity on the Macedonia front especially at the Cerna Bend where five groups of assaulting troops attempted to penetrate our lines, but were completely checked and suffered serious losses. "Quiet on British Front. London, July 9.—"On the British front there is nothing of special interest to report," says the official communication tonight. "To Guarantee Safety. Amsterdam, July 9.—A member of the Bolshevik government has taken up quarters in the German embassy at Moscow, according to the Berlin Tageblatt. This is for the purpose of showing that the Bolshevik government has undertaken to guarantee the safety of the German personnel. "Life Now Normal. London, July 9.—Life in Vladivostok now is normal, says a dispatch from Tokio to the Central News Agency. The rule of the soviet has passed. Towns in our district are coming under Czech-Slovak control. Russian destroyers at the port have been destroyed by the Russian commander. "Condemns Government. Washington, July 9.—An official despatch today from Switzerland says that the independent Socialist Deputy Stroebel in a violent speech in the Prussian Landtag recently condemned the German government for its efforts to secure a peace by force. He warned the German people that unless they rid themselves of their government and "send their politicians of war and rapine to the devil" America's millions of soldiers will prove too strong a force to contain. "Only Reliable Basis. London, July 9.—Prominent Russian residents in London consider the Czech-Slovak movement in Siberia as the only reliable basis for a struggle against Bolshevism and the restoration of order in Russia. "The recent Moscow rising which was suppressed by the Bolsheviks is now considered here to have not been a patriotic Russian move but as equal to a party quarrel between the Bolsheviks and their late friends and supporters, the Social revolutionaries of the left. "The Kerensky group of social revolutionaries in the counter revolution and had nothing to do with the murder of Count von Mirbach, the German ambassador to Russia, or with the street fighting. "Austrians Surprised. Italian Army Headquarters in Northern Italy, July 9.—(By the Associated Press).—Austrian prisoners who have been taken lately by the Italians appear not to be informed of the part the United States is playing in the war. When an automobile carrying members of the United States military mission halted this afternoon in front of a line of prisoners called out in English to the chauffeur. "Say, what are you doing out here?" "When informed that the United States was in the war he expressed surprise and said: "Well, I hope the Americans keep on coming strong enough to win the war. Then we can get out of this mess and I can go back to America." "Message of Greeting. Washington, July 9.—Count V. Macchi di Cellere, Italian ambassador, today transmitted to President Wilson a message of greeting sent by Mothers of Italian Combatants to American Mothers on the arrival in Italy of the American troops. In authorizing the publication of the message, President Wilson expressed his belief "that it will be received with the deepest interest and appreciation by the mothers of our soldiers." "The message follows: "In the day in which Rome, all Italy, exultant, welcomes and acclaims your generous sons, the mothers of the Italian combatants send a fraternal auspicious greeting to the American mothers united with them by the same herb of patriotic and maternal love, they have the valor of their sons, the final victory, the triumph of civilization." "Partial Attacks Repulsed. Berlin, July 9.—(Via London).—The official communication tonight says: "South of LaBasse canal repeated partial attacks were repulsed and on the north bank of the Somme strong enemy attacks broke down. On this sector the artillery duel continued lively and in the evening increased intermittently to great violence. "West of Antheuil local attacks were launched by the enemy this morning after violent artillery preparation. At the forest of Villers-Cotterets partial attacks by the French broke down. "Eighteen enemy airplanes were shot down yesterday. "The evening report says: "Southwest of Noyon, French attacks were repulsed. Successful local engagements took place west of Chateau Thierry." "Denies Rumors. Amsterdam, July 9.—Denying rumors circulating in Austria-Hungary regarding Emperor Zeta, the representative at Vienna of the Tild, says: "It is true that the Austrian emperor properly desires peace and has with proper dignity advocated it, but the rumor that an energetic Austrian offensive against Italy was delayed by her influence is slanderous, as also is the rumor that the emperor was to blame for one or two setbacks which followed the offensive. "It is still more slanderous to involve her honor as a woman with imperial statesmanship and the imperial house. The emperor, whose sensitiveness is well known, suffered not a little under the imputations which have driven her to a sick bed. "The slander is more painful as it even assailed the wedded fidelity which so distinguished the conduct of the imperial couple while the non-existent correspondence which was said to contain utterances of the empress regarding peace is reported to be the first cause of the difference between the emperor and the empress."

DECREASE IN PRODUCTION OF WHEAT SHOWN

Corn Harvest Promises To Be Largest On Record

WASHINGTON, July 9.—A reduction of 40,000,000 bushels in the prospective wheat harvest was shown today in the department of agriculture's July forecast, which is $91,000,000 bushels compared with $131,000,000 bushels forecast in June. Detention during June reduced the prospective winter wheat crop by 30,000,000 bushels and the spring wheat crop by ten million bushels. The corn harvest promises to be the largest on record with a total of 3,160,000,000 bushels as forecast for the first time this season by the government. The acreage is almost five percent smaller than planted last year, the total being 112,835,000 acres. Record crops of barley, rye, sweet potatoes and rice are indicated, while forecasts of the oats, white potatoes and tobacco crops show they probably will equal their records if they have good growing conditions. Only half as much wheat remained on farms on July 1 this year as was held on that date last year and the quality was about one-fifth of the average holdover of the five years 1912-16. Production forecasts of the various crops estimated from their July 1 conditions, follow: Amounts in millions bushels. Winter wheat..... 557 Spring wheat..... 334 All wheat..... 891 Corn..... 3,160 Oats..... 1,437 Barley..... 230 Rye..... 81.6 White potatoes..... 406 Sweet potatoes..... 92.1 Apples..... 92.1 Wheat remaining on farms July 1 is estimated at 8,283,000 bushels. ARREST DECATUR MAN ON MURDER CHARGE
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 9.—The arrest in Decatur Sunday night of Frank Allen, a skating rink employee at Decatur, said to have been wanted in connection with the murder in 1916 at Mason City of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Becker became known here today.

Allen, who was working in a skating rink at Mason City at the time of the killing, is being held in jail at Peoria.

William Becker, eldest son of the slain couple, was charged with the murder and placed on trial. Before much progress had been made the case against him was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker, both advanced in age, were shot to death and their bodies set afire. They resided on a farm. Robbery was thought to have been the motive.

PARIS, July 9.—Captain Drew Webster, an American infantry officer, suffered fatal injuries when a military automobile he was driving collided with another machine at Villers-Sous-Orès, in the department of Seine-et-Marne, according to the Matin. THREE DAY RECESS
WASHINGTON, July 9.—While the senate was engaged with spirited controversies over war time prohibition and the telegraph control resolution the house today ordered its first three-day "gentlemen's agreement" recess, adjourning tonight until next Friday.

TO SUCCEED RHONDDA.
London, July 9.—John Robert Clines, parliamentary secretary to the control department, has been appointed to succeed the late Viscount Rhondda as food controller.

WILL REPORT ON WIRE RESOLUTION TODAY

Committee Will Report to Senate Western Union Head Will Not Oppose Government's Plan Unless Design Is to Unionize Employees.

Washington, July 9.—After a three-hours' examination of Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, the senate interstate commerce committee today voted 7 to 3 to report without amendment or further hearing the house resolution authorizing government control during the war of telegraph, telephone, cable and radio systems.

Chairman Smith plans to report the resolution to the senate tomorrow. It is undetermined whether to urge immediate consideration and thus replace the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural appropriation bill with its war time prohibition rider. While expecting a bitter contest, senate leaders believe a vote can be reached soon and that further hearings will not be ordered in view of the president's insistence that he did not think there was necessity for the government taking over telegraph wires, but that he would not oppose it unless the design was to unionize the employees.

After Mr. Carlton was heard, Senators Pomere of Ohio, and Gore of Oklahoma, Democrats, and Kellogg of Minnesota, Republican, insisted upon further hearings but were voted down.

Sharp criticism of the majority was planned by those advocating further hearings, but they said they did not expect to be able to re-open the hearings.

PROHIBITION LAW IS NOT TAKEN UP
WASHINGTON, July 9.—Although the National prohibition as a war measure was discussed briefly in the senate today, the amendment to the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural appropriation bill under which the manufacture and sale of all intoxicants would be prohibited during the war was not taken up. There were no indications tonight when consideration of the amendment would begin as the agricultural measure may be replaced by the resolution authorizing government control during the war of telegraph and telephone lines. When the amendment is reached Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania is expected to press a point of order which he made today against the inclusion of it in the bill on the ground that it is general legislation attached to an appropriation measure in violation of the rules.

Prohibition leaders charged that the slow progress was due to efforts of opponents of the prohibition section to delay action in the hope that the telegraph control resolution would be brought before the senate. Opponents denied any such intention.

WILL CLOSE IN TODAY.
Little Rock, Ark., July 9.—Military and civil forces searching for the band of alleged draft resisters that has been hiding in the hills of Cleburne county since Sunday defying attempts to capture them, today removed all of the women and children in the territory where the men have secreted themselves according to a despatch from Herber Springs. The action, it was stated, was preliminary to the launching early tomorrow of a closing movement by which officials hope to capture the band of draft resisters. It is believed that the gang numbers about fourteen men all heavily armed. Three of them are said to be deserters from Camp Pike and to have their service rifles. A pacifist preacher is their leader according to the despatch.

NEW INSTRUCTIONS FROM GEN. CROWDER
WASHINGTON, July 9.—Instructions have been sent by Provost Marshal General Crowder to all local draft boards ordering the cessation of the privilege hitherto granted registered men of selecting the arm of the service in which they desire to enlist when volunteering. It was learned officially, however, that no action has been taken to stop the voluntary enlistment in the navy for men of Class One.

Secretary Baker said today he had conferred with Major General Crowder regarding this less of draft men to the army. It is that no decision had been reached to withdraw permission for such enlistments.

AGRICULTURAL SECTION.
Washington, July 9.—Establishment of an agricultural section under direction of J. L. Edwards of Atlanta, Ga., was announced today by the railroad administration. Mr. Edwards' duty will be to look after the relations between the railroads and the department of agriculture and it is expected that the encouragement and extension of agriculture especially in the south and west will be actively stimulated.

NO LABOR SHORTAGE.
Washington July 9.—Prevention of the threatened shortage of harvest labor in the western wheat belt and the probable saving of every acre of the crop was announced today by the federal employment service. Wheat cutting is now in progress and reports received by the employment service indicate that there has been no shortage at any point where the harvest had actually begun.

APPOINTED MANAGER.
Washington, July 9.—F. S. Holbrook formerly vice president of the Wells-Fargo Express company was appointed today as manager of the new mail and express section created in the railroad administration.

TO COUNTERACT HUN INFLUENCE IN RUSSIA

U. S. Business Men May Carry Material Aid to People

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Entente governments thru their embassies in Washington are now fully advised of the views of the Washington administration as to the best means of carrying out President Wilson's pledge to stand behind Russia. It is understood that a project is taking shape which it is hoped will counteract German influence and lead the people to rehabilitate themselves without exciting distrust of the selfish motives which lie behind it.

While any official statement of the administration's policy still is withheld there is reason to believe that the proposal to send American business men to Russia to carry material aid to the people with armed guards to insure the safety of the personnel and supplies from German aggression is forming the basis of the negotiations now proceeding with unusual rapidity between Washington and the entente capitals. Only it has assumed a new phase thru the injection of the idea to make the commission and armed guards international in composition, thus tending to disarm any suspicion on the part of the Russians that their country is to be exploited in the interests of a single power.

This measure is far short of the original desires of the entente governments which frankly favored the dispatch into Siberia and perhaps into European Russia thru the Archangel or Kola route of a joint military expedition. But it is believed that in the absence of full American approval of this plan the entente powers have been brought to the point where they are willing to at least sanction the experiment of peaceful penetration and that negotiations are now in progress to arrange the details of this enterprise. At any rate the fact developed today that some action is imminent.

To Discuss Siberian Situation.
Tokio, Thursday, July 4.—By the Associated Press.—Colonel Vladimir Hurban, a member of the national Czech-Slovak council, has arrived in Tokio from Vladivostok. He will leave shortly for the United States to discuss the Siberian situation with the Washington government. Colonel Hurban told the correspondent that the action taken by the Czech-Slovaks in assuming control at Vladivostok was the inevitable result of unjustified attacks by the Bolsheviks and the deliberate attempts of the latter to aid Austro-German prisoner forces in preventing the Czech-Slovaks from moving towards Vladivostok.

The number of Czech-Slovaks was estimated by Colonel Hurban as 80,000 of whom 15,000 were in Vladivostok. The colonel considers that it will be necessary to occupy the trans-Siberian railway line from the Volga to Vladivostok together with the town of Irkutsk, for an indefinite period until allied assistance can be sent or a responsible government organized. The American and Russian Red Cross organizations here have received a urgent call for help from the Czech-Slovaks in Siberia. Dr. Rudolph Tensler and Mrs. Ensler have left hurriedly for Vladivostok to investigate conditions in response to the call.

TAKES FERGUS CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 9.—After hearing the final arguments and motions of attorneys this afternoon Circuit Judge F. W. Burton has taken under advisement the famous Fergus case and will announce his decision later on the objections to the report of the master-in-chance.

Logan Hay, counsel for the former state officials who are defendants, sprung a surprise today when he filed a motion asking that the case against former State Treasurer Andrew Russell, former State Auditor Brady and former Secretary of State Stevenson, be dismissed under the provisions of recent statutes. Another question raised during the proceedings was whether the fact that Barratt O'Hara is now in the military and unable to appear, would act as a stay of proceedings.

The argument involved questions sustained in the master's report alleging padded payrolls and conspiracy. Judge Burton announced that he would consider the preliminary motions when he came to pass on the main issues.

RECEIVED KERENSKY.
Paris, July 9.—Havas Agency.—The parliamentary committee on action abroad today received Alexander Kerensky the former Russian premier who explained the situation in Russia. He said he was desirous of coming to an agreement with all parties regarding the best means of putting Russia again on a full active footing. He suggested immediate intervention by the allies in order that the common struggle against the central powers may continue.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

While waiting for the Germans to begin a new assault, allied forces on the western front are giving the enemy little opportunity to perfect his arrangements for launching the attack. From the Lys sector, on the north to the Champagne front in eastern France, there have been sudden thrusts at the German lines, at least one of which has made considerable ground.

The particular blow was struck by the French west of the Oise and north of the Matz river on the battlefield where the Germans were stopped short in their attempt to hew their way thru to Compeigne early in June.

The French advanced along the Compeigne road northwest of Antheuil and occupied the Lège and Ports farms on each side of the highway. The ground they have taken is important from a defensive standpoint.

There seems to have been some spirited fighting on the British front along LaBasse canal north of Lens and north of the Somme, in the Picardy sector. Berlin announces that the British were repulsed in repeated attacks in the former region and adds that their attack north of the Somme broke down. The French attack at Antheuil is merely mentioned in the official German statement, which says, however, that attacks in the Villers-Cotterets and Chateau Thierry sectors were repulsed by the Germans. While the fighting on the Macedonian and Albanian frontiers must remain a side issue to the great battles that are expected momentarily in France and possibly in northern Italy, the progress of the French and Italians along the Albanian coast brings that theatre of the war into consideration.

Rapid strides have been made since the French and Italian assaults were launched north of Avlona, July 6. Strong Austrian positions have been stormed and it appears that allied have been successful in turning the Austrian right wing. An official statement from Rome says that Italian cavalry have gained the Austrian rear and destroyed bridges across the Semiti river which parallels the Voyous, where the attack was begun. This marks an advance of about 15 miles.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign minister, has retired from office, it is announced, and the German emperor has accepted his resignation. This has been expected since Von Kuehlmann's address in the German reichstag June 25 in the course of which he said the victory was purely military decisions could hardly be expected.

Czech-Slovak forces in Eastern Siberia have extended their sphere of influence up the Amur river to Nikolayevsk, an important naval station. The defeated Bolshevik troops, with their Austro-German allies, are being retreating toward Khabarovsk, the capital of the maritime province.

General Pershing's official statement of operations along the sectors held by Americans makes special mention of heavy German troop movements near Mulhouse, in Alsace. It is also reported that German airmen are very active in that sector of the front.

TO STRICTLY ENFORCE SUGAR REGULATIONS
CHICAGO, July 9.—A campaign for strict enforcement of regulations governing the sale of sugar was put into effect by the United States Food administration today. A large amount of sugar to have been sold at auction was seized, a retailer was ordered to make no more sales of sugar and a plan was adopted for checking purchases at department stores.

"We cannot locate any violation of the regulations regarding the sale of sugar," said A. S. Adams of the bureau of enforcement of the food administration. "The sugar situation is critical and we shall deal summarily with those who neglect to observe the rulings, the purpose of which is to insure a fair distribution of our supply. Sales of sugar are to be registered in department stores hereafter. Customers have been able to buy sugar and come back as often as they wished. They will now have to sign their names in a book and list that they have not more than two pounds of sugar on hand."

"In Quincy, Ill., we have located some people who have hoarded from fifty to one hundred pounds of sugar."

AFTER ALLEGED DRAFT RESISTERS
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 9.—Whether martial law shall be proclaimed in Cleburne county, Arkansas, where a band of alleged draft resisters has been hiding in the hill country since Sunday defying a large force of deputy sheriffs and soldiers, depended today upon report to Governor Charles H. Brough by Colonel Leonard Ellis, commander of the Fourth Regiment, Arkansas National Guard, whom the governor late last night sent to take charge of the situation. The governor has stated he will take any steps deemed advisory by Colonel Ellis.

100 MEET DEATH IN RAIL WRECK NEAR NASHVILLE

Most of Killed Negro Workmen Going To Powder Plant

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 9.—At an early hour this morning (Wednesday) the total number of identified and unidentified dead from yesterday's collision on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad near here reached 125. The injured number 75, many of them seriously.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 9.—At least 100 persons, most of them negroes, were killed and many more injured, a score seriously, in a head-on collision today between two passenger trains on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway at Dutchman's Bend, five miles from this city.

Most of the killed and injured were on a local train from Nashville which carried several coaches full of workmen going to a nearby powder plant. The other train was an express from Memphis and the west, and after the two engines had reared and fallen beside the track the heavy coaches of the express plowed thru the baggage car on the accommodation train and demolished two other coaches.

Many of the dead were killed almost instantly but others were pinned beneath the wreckage and could not be removed before they succumbed. The work of clearing away the wreckage is proceeding slowly and it is believed that some dead bodies are still buried in the debris.

The injured, some of whom are thought to be fatally hurt, were brought to Nashville in ambulances and are being cared for at hospitals here. The dead were brought to morgues in this city and relatives sought to identify the bodies but in some cases this was impossible. As the crews of both locomotives were killed the cause of the collision may never be established.

Among the killed were several soldiers and sailors including Private John P. Hussey of Union Ill.; Wilson B. Harris of the naval reserves, whose address was not known and a member of the marine corps named Alexander, whose address also could not be ascertained.

COLUMBIA DEATH LIST IS INCREASED TO 84
At Least 8 More Bodies, Probably as Many as 15, are Still Unrecovered.

Peoria, Ill., July 9.—With the recovery of four more bodies today the death list of the Steamer Columbia was increased to 84. At least eight more bodies, possibly as many as fifteen, are still in the water. The bodies recovered today are those of Harry Brown, Pekin; Jerry Chiolis, a Greek; Pekin; Rudolph Poesel, aged 14, Pekin, and George Schuster, Kingston. Three of the four bodies were found floating in the water.

The federal board of inquiry will go to Pekin tomorrow to take testimony. The board will hear the evidence of a number of persons who were on the top deck when the steamer is said to have jammed the shore.

Thomas Miller, it is said, will testify that the boat began to submerge as soon as it began backing away. It is claimed point is on the willows grazed by the boat.

E. E. Black, state's attorney of Tazewell county, today declared that he would conduct an exhaustive probe independent of the federal investigation which it is said will be secret and the result of which will be first announced to Washington.

BRITISH TRADE UNIONISTS MEET
LONDON, July 9.—A conference of delegates representing two and a half million British trade unionists held in the house of commons today adopted a resolution providing for the establishment of an international trades union bureau to secure closer relationship between British, American, Colonial, and neutral workers, with a view to formulating a trades union policy during and after the war. The bureau also will consider the advisability of appointing labor ambassadors to the respective countries as agents of international trade unionism.

The movement is the outcome of the recent visit here of American labor delegates.

Premier Lloyd George, in a statement to soldiers at the front, said the allies are ready for peace, but that it could only be brought about in terms as announced by the president of the United States. "I do not desire one foot of German land."

Russians are on the ragged edge and the crisis may be the means of bringing the people back to their senses and lining them up for the cause they deserted for a German peace.

The Bolsheviks have printed forty billion of rubles on paper backed by nothing more than the printing press.

Grain men report much old corn yet in Illinois. Besides an amount kept for feeding there is little in this section.

Congress voted millions a minute for war purposes and the people approve. Anything to win the war.

The head of the German navy has told the reichstag that the submarine is winning the war. He has been defeated and that the shipping of the allies has been all but relieved of the menace of the mad dogs of the sea. Yet there stands the fact that this nation has placed more than one million soldiers in France. To do so we must have thousands upon thousands of ships tons. And to back up those soldiers, thousands upon thousands of tons must be carried safely across the sea. Germany cannot expect to win this war through the submarine, or through any other method, unless American ships are barred from their work of carrying American soldiers and American supplies across the ocean.

PRISONERS OF WAR.
The American Red Cross has fairly accurate information from each one of the twenty-seven prison camps in Germany where American soldiers are held as prisoners of war, and with the aid of the Swiss Red Cross keeps our soldiers and sailors supplied with nourishing food, new clothing, soap and other necessities. At the beginning of June there were about 300 men in uniform in German prison camps. The American troops have captured considerably more than 1,000 Germans so the score is more than even in that respect. In Bern, Switzerland, the American Red Cross has a great warehouse from which it sends to each American prisoner in Germany twenty pounds of food every week. Our government pays for this food and equipment and the Red Cross sees that it reaches the men.

Already there are enough supplies in the Red Cross warehouse at Bern to take care of 22,000 American prisoners—if the Germans can take that number!

FARMHANDS' $25 EQUALS CITY MAN'S $80.
Those who have been thinking the farmhand has been underpaid should compare his wages with what the city man is paid. An editorial in the July Farm and Fireside says:
"The farmhand comes in for considerable discussion nowadays, but he is much better off than most people think. The Ohio State Council of Defense has been making a survey of labor conditions, and reports that a married man working on the farm for $30 a month is as well off as if he were to receive $105 in a city; that a $35 a month farm job equals a $110 city job; that a $40 farm job equals a $115 city job, and so on. 'Not taking into consideration,' the report adds, 'the possibility of raising some stock or produce on shares, which is usually customary.'"
"Nor has the married man on the farm job a monopoly of advantages, for the report further finds that an unmarried farmhand receiving $25 is as well off as if he were receiving $80 in the city; that a $30 job for the bachelor farmhand equals a $90 city job; and that a $40 job on the farm is as good as a $95 job in the city, and so on. The difference in aggregate returns is brought about by house rent, groceries, meat, milk, light fuel, unnecessary expenses, and luxuries."

USE SYRUP.
The allotment for sugar for the state of Illinois has been fixed and it appears necessary, particularly during the canning season, to use all available substitutes. The food regulations apply only to cane and beet sugars. There are various substitutes, many of which are equal to the controlled sugars. The United States food commission therefore request that we publish bulletin No. 3, which applies particularly to syrup for soda fountains but which obviously may apply to other purposes.

POSTPONING ROAD BUILDING.
Action of the state division of highways in rejecting bids for the construction of sections of the Dixie and Lincoln highways is taken to indicate that very little extensive road improvement will be undertaken in Illinois during the war. In throwing out the bids, the highway division said in a statement that the action resulted from the fact that few contractors were interested and others submitted figures that were "excessive." No blame was attached to them, however, and reasons were cited why bidding at present was little more than a gamble.
It was suggested that an investigation would be made to determine whether the roads in question were important enough to warrant the state's going ahead with their building apart from the aid from federal sources.
The statement, signed by Thomas G. Vesnum, acting director of the department of public works, S. E. Bradt, superintendent of highways, and Clifford Older, chief highway engineer, follows:
"It was hoped by the department that we would be able to improve during 1918, all of the earth sections on the federal aid roads for which funds are available, leaving the gravel and macadam sections to be used in their present condition until the following year. This would have given a good road usable every day in the year throughout the entire length of those highways in Illinois. These roads would have been of great economic value as they would have connected important centers of production of both agricultural and manufactured products."
"When bids were received it was found there were no bidders on a number of sections. On a number of other sections bids appeared excessive even under existing conditions. This would make it impossible to put the roads in good condition throughout their entire length and would place the work in the class of fragmentary and scattered sections the improvement of which is discouraged by the federal authorities."
"Because of the uncertainties of the situation brought about by war conditions no blame can be attached to contractors. Contractors are obliged to take into consideration many things over which they have no control, among which are the following:
"The liability of a wide variation in the cost of labor.
"Possible difficulty of obtaining labor at any price.
"Impossibilities likely to be encountered in transportation because of shortage of cars.
"Possibility of further advance in freight rates."
"In view of the foregoing it was deemed best to take the action indicated. It was recommended, however, that an investigation be made in conjunction with the federal authorities to determine whether these federal aid roads be considered of sufficient importance for the movement of fuel, crops, munitions, and other war materials to warrant their construction by the state itself."

RIPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

THE TIRED HARVESTER
I went from town, on joyful feet, to help the farmer harvest wheat. My breast was full of loyal fire; I said, "No man should paw a lyre, or monkey with a fountain pen, when farmers call for working men. I'll show these grangers which is which; they'll marvel when the sheaves I pitch; they'll wonder how an urban pote can do such stunts with wheat and oat." At sunrise, then, I started in, to labor, with a cheerful grin. The farmers watched my trail of smoke and smiled as tho they saw some joke. At 8 o'clock I'd lost some pep; I moved along with dragging step; my joints began to groan and crack. I had nine stitches in my back. At 9 o'clock my brain went numb; I yelled in wild delirium; I thought that I was on the rack. Such shooting pains ran up my back; I called on those around, in vain, to take an ax and end my pain. At 10 o'clock I left the field, my head on fire, my feet congealed. On hands and knees I crawled away, and asked the farmer for my pay. "You farmer from town," he coldly said, "aren't worth your share of war-time bread. I want no more silk-shirted gent; here is your pay, just sixty cents."

WORKING ON STATUES AT STATE CAPITAL

Work has progressed well on the Lincoln statue which is being placed in position in the state house yard according to a news note in the Springfield Journal.
Men have begun to excavate the foundation of the Douglas statue, which is to be erected on the lawn between Monroe street and Capitol avenue. The Menard statue which has been in position on the north side of the entrance for a number of years, is to be removed to a spot near Charles street.
The Lincoln statue, which is to be unveiled in a Centennial celebration to be held in this city in October, is expected to arrive in this city in a short time. After it is placed in position, it will be covered until the celebration is held.
The work on the base of the Lincoln statue has been in progress for some time, and was accelerated in the course of the day by the officials of the state.
Drawings have been received of the proposed new centennial building which is to be erected to the south of the state house. It is probable that they will be scanned at a meeting of the centennial building commission to be held in a short time.

MRS. S. M. METCALF DIES AT HOME HERE

Deceased Had Been In Serious Condition For Nearly Two Months.

The death of Mrs. S. M. Metcalf occurred at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the family residence on South Main street. For a long period Mrs. Metcalf had been in failing health but her final illness covered a period of only a few weeks. It was recorded that she suffered a stroke of paralysis on the day of the funeral of her brother, the late W. F. Huntley, whose death was due to a like cause. Mrs. Metcalf, whose maiden name was Martha Huntley, was born seventy-eight years ago in Waverly, so that practically her entire life was spent in this county.

After attending the public schools she became a student at Illinois Woman's college and her interest in that institution was continued thru all the after years. The deceased was married more than fifty years to Samuel M. Metcalf, for many years a well known Jacksonville merchant. He survives her, together with two sons, Dr. Fred Metcalf of Franklin and Frank Metcalf of this city. She leaves also one sister, Mrs. Emma Merck of Philadelphia, who has spent part of her time with Mrs. Metcalf in this city. The deceased was an aunt of Mrs. Alfred T. Capps of this city, Mrs. E. F. Welch and Henry and Frank Huntley.

Mrs. Metcalf was a member of Centenary M. E. church. She lived a somewhat quiet and retired life but her views on religious matters were of a pronounced kind and she lived a devoted and earnest Christian life. Her quiet home reflected the gentleness and kindness of her spirit and the long years were years of usefulness.

Funeral services will be held at the residence Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. W. R. Leslie, pastor of Centenary church.

Circus Funny Men are Successful Salesmen During Winter Months

Two of Barnum & Bailey's Clowns Sold Goods to Local Merchants Recently

Among the sixty clowns who will be here with Barnum & Bailey's circus Thursday, July 17, are two men who were here during the winter months and sold merchandise to the leading merchants of the city. They will not be recognized of course, but nevertheless they visited every city of any considerable size, east of the Mississippi, during the time that the circus was in winter quarters, and next winter they will be here again. One sells automobile accessories and the other carries a line of canned goods. They are clowns during seven months of the year because the call of the sawdust arena is too much for them to withstand. They love "trouping" and clowning. But when the tour is over they report to their New York houses and are soon off on the road again in a very different capacity.

This is not strange when it is considered that the clown must be a person of keen wit and intelligence. He must think out his own fun-making "stunts" and if he were not a student of human nature he would not last long as a clown. What better material could any business house find from which to create a traveling salesman?

Nearly all Barnum & Bailey clowns have avocations requiring business acumen during the winter months. Five of them own stores of their own in small cities, three have insurance agencies located in New York, and one is a floor walker in a department store. Many of them are in small stock companies playing serious parts.

Of course the clowns are an important part of the evening's entertainment, but they are only incidental to the big program of circus events which will amuse, thrill and entertain during three hours. The performance opens with a pageant entitled, "Aladdin and his Wonderful Lamp," which has been described as a production of more beauty and color than anything attempted before by the big circus organizations. More than one thousand men and women and as many camels, horses and elephants will appear in the pageant, robed in gorgeous costumes and making a magnificent spectacle. The pageant will be followed by a program of circus events in air and in every part of the arena during more than two hours. The menagerie has been enlarged and among the new animals are baby lions, leopards, camels, giraffes, and other young folks of the wild.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION NOTES

"Mother Fries It In a Pan"

Remember the little rhyme about the fish in the brook? Catching fish is real war work. Eating it instead of meat is patriotism. The United States Food Administration submits these menus to give you some ideas.

1. Halibut with Mexican Sauce
Belgian Baked Potatoes
Spinach
Corn Bread
Jellied Peaches with Rice

2. Fish Pilaf with Spanish Sauce
Fried Green Tomatoes
Tapioca Pudding.

3. Halibut with Mexican Sauce.
6 slices halibut
2 tablespoons corn flour
2 tablespoons salt
2 tablespoons fat
1 1/2 cups water
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Dredge halibut with flour and salt. Melt fat in baking dish and brown slices of halibut on top of the stove. Pour water and Worcestershire over fish and bake in a moderate oven 35 minutes. Then pour Mexican sauce over fish, bake 15 minutes and serve.

Mexican Sauce
2 cups tomato
1 tablespoon grated onion
3 tablespoons corn flour
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 cup cold water
1 chopped green or red pepper
Bring tomatoes and onion to boiling point. Mix flour and salt with cold water and add to tomatoes, stirring constantly, add pepper and pour over fish.

Fish Pilaf With Spanish Sauce.
1 cup rice
2 quarts boiling water
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup cooked fish
1 cup fine wheatless bread crumbs
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
3/4 cup rice stock
1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Cook the rice in boiling salted water until thoroughly done. Drain reserving the rice stock. Line a greased baking dish with part of the rice.

Mix the fish, crumbs, Worcestershire sauce, pepper and rice stock and pack into center of dish. Cover with remainder of rice, packing it down to make a firm mold. Tie a paper over the top. Set in a steamer or on several thicknesses of paper in a pan of boiling water and steam for 30 minutes. Serve with Spanish Sauce.

Spanish Sauce.
2 tablespoons fat
3 tablespoons corn flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup stewed tomatoes
1 cup rice stock
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped pimiento.

Melt fat, add flour, salt and pepper, remove from fire, add tomato and water, return to fire and bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly; add onion and pimiento. Turn mold of fish on a platter and pour sauce around it.

Too Busy?

"I'm sure I don't know what is happening to my kitchen these days," exclaimed a woman the other day. "My grocery bills are appalling. I'm afraid we are wasting fearfully in every way, but I haven't time to consider economies or to watch the ordering or cooking to see that the food administration's wishes are carried out. I'm too busy."

Too busy!

This is the universal excuse today of women who are letting their households run amuck. Never before in history have there been so many compelling forces drawing women outside their homes. So much Red Cross work to be done! So many committees on which to serve! So many hundreds of kinds of war work that we put off thought on the various relief activities and work out some plan by which we can apportion our time and strength to those things most worth our while.

One of the first questions facing the woman who is running a home is: "Is food conservation worth while?"

Before giving the answer let us ask ourselves "Is the saving of human lives worth while?"

If it is then food conservation is worth while; for the program of the U. S. food administration for saving food in American kitchens is the only way to save the lives of millions of people in Europe, who might otherwise die of starvation.

War-time Bread Doughs

Every housewife knows by this time that it is her patriotic duty to save wheat. She knows the "why" of wheat saving. What she wants to know more about is the "how."

"Must I tear up all my old and faithful bread recipes and learn all over again" she asks gropingly.

Not at all. But every housewife who would bake good war bread should study and know well the best combinations of substitute flours and the quality necessary to use for the amount of wheat flour called for in her old recipe.

It is just such problems as these that the Experimental kitchen of the Food Administration and Department of Agriculture are constantly working out. This information is then passed on to the country's housewives.

To mix two of the substitute flour has been found to give better results than to use any one of them alone. For instance, rolled oats or barley flour or buckwheat flour or peanut flour or soy bean flour combined with corn flour or rice flour or potato flour or sweet potato flour or corn meal is better than any one of these by itself.

The substitute flours vary in weight and where you find old recipe calls for 2 cups of flour, do not think that you can therefore use 1 cup of one of the substitutes and 1 cup of another and have the same consistency of bread dough as with the 2 cups of wheat flour. The following table will show the fractional amounts of these various substitute flours required to equal one cup of wheat flour.

Barley 1 3/8 cups
Buckwheat 7/8 cups
Corn flour 1 cup (scant)
Corn meal (coarse) 3/4 cup
Corn meal (fine) 1 cup scant
Corn starch 3/4 cup
Peanut flour 1 cup (scant)
Potato flour 3/4 cup
Rice flour 7/8 cup
Rolled oats 1 1/2 cups
Rolled oats (ground in meat chopper) 1 1/2 cups
Soy bean flour 3/4 cup
Sweet potato flour 1 1/4 cups

Decide first what two substitutes you are going to use. Look at your table and determine the equivalent amounts necessary and then divide this accordingly. For instance, if for two cups of wheat flour, as the old recipe reads, you are using barley flour and corn flour you would use 1 3/8 cups of the barley flour and 1 scant cup of the corn flour.

Even with these equivalents determined as closely as possible the batter will often look too thick or too thin. But do not be discouraged for if you have measured accurately the result after baking will be a successful war bread.

What Are You Doing About It?

If a list were made of all those in Europe who have died in action and another of those who have died from starvation, the latter would be the longer.

Think of it! 500,000 more have died from famine than have died on the battle field. The total number of those who have been killed in fighting is 4,250,000. The total number of those who have died from starvation is 4,750,000.

Can we grasp the tragedy in these figures?

Over four and a half millions of old men and women, young mothers, girls and babies, have been sacrificed to the War God without even the privilege of leaving behind the honored memory of those who die in glorious service on the battlefield. They have died in silent anguish, unknown and un-suspected.

Perhaps the memory of their deaths would not forever fill us with horror if we could convince ourselves that those who have died from starvation have not died in vain, that by their sacrifice they have pushed the Allies a little nearer victory. The loss of these lives will have been appallingly useless unless the deaths shall serve as a spur for us to redouble our efforts in food conservation and save the remaining millions in Europe who turn to us each day, pleading, "Give us this day our daily bread."

What are you doing to prevent the further sacrifice of human lives from starvation? Are you

(1) Going wheatless until the next harvest?

(2) Raising and planting to can enough vegetables and fruit for your own needs this summer and next winter?

(3) Reducing your consumption of sugar to a minimum by using honey and syrups whenever possible?

(4) Making the smallest amounts of meat and fats go the longest way?

(5) Preaching and practicing food conservation whenever possible?

Salads for Summer.

Leafy vegetables have come into new flavor. Like milk they give us some kinds of food that we cannot get along without. They are sometimes even called "protective foods." Here are some salads suggested by the United States Food Administration.

Yellow Tomato Salad.

Peel and slice yellow tomatoes lay them on lettuce leaves and pour over French dressing.

Kobrabli Salad.

Peel and cut in two and slice thin, the young kohlrabi; parboil in salt water, pour off, and stew in plain water for 25 minutes. Drain and let cool. Serve on lettuce leaves with red mayonnaise.

Endive Salad.

Wash the endive thoroughly and let it stand in ice cold water for an hour. Pour over French dressing made red with paprika.

Kentucky Salad.

Take several heads of crisp white lettuce, remove the hearts and spread the heads flat. Chop equal parts of white cabbage and green peppers and lay on the lettuce. Pour over bacon dressing.

PLAN FOR Y. M. C. A. CAMP ON RIVER.

J. S. Findley and L. S. Recker of the Y. M. C. A. accompanied J. W. Skinner to Mercedosa yesterday. There they looked over prospective camping ground for the Y. M. C. A. boys who are expecting to spend the first ten days of August in camp. A camp site on Mercedosa bay not far from the fish hatcheries was found to be the most favorable and it is very probable that this will be the camp site chosen. For a number of years the boys have gone to some camping place near Havana but a change for this year was determined upon. There will be twenty boys in the party from the ages of 12 to 16. They will be under the general direction of Secretary Findley and Harry Walker, the athletic director.

RUSSIAN TOWN OF MUSHROOM GROWTH

Murmansk, Northern Terminus of Kola-Petrograd Railway, Has Sprung into Being Since Beginning of War—One American Among Town's Permanent Population.

London, June — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Murmansk, the northern terminus of the great Russian Kola-Petrograd railway, is a mushroom town which has sprung into being on the shores of the Arctic Ocean since the war. When The Associated Press correspondent visited it on his way out with the American Red Cross Mission to Rumania, it contained about 6,000 inhabitants, more than half of whom were refugees.

The houses in Murmansk are little more than frame shacks and the construction of the whole town resembles that of a Klondike mining camp. During the winter the temperature drops as low as 20 below zero, for Murmansk is 150 miles north of the Arctic circle. The most picturesque feature of the town in winter is the abundance of reindeer sledges which jingle up and down the straggling streets carrying supplies of food and freight.

There is one American among the permanent population of Murmansk. He is a young army man, Lieutenant Martin, of Meridian, Miss., who bravely flies an American flag from a staff on the roof of a railway car which constitutes his office and residence.

Lieutenant Martin is officially designated as the "United States Passport Officer." He is a person of great importance in Murmansk. He speaks Russian fluently and is not only highly regarded by the French and British officers of the port, but is also spoken of by the Bolsheviks as "one of our leading citizens." He is actually ex-officio chief adviser to the local Bolsheviks and attends all the meetings of their Soviets and committees.

The Murmansk Bolsheviks are not a bad sort, and are on good terms with all the Allied military and naval men. This is perhaps in part accounted for by the fact that they secure nearly all their food supplies from the British Admiralty. For many months they have been eating flour, sugar, canned meat and condensed milk—all from America.

Every Murmansk Bolshevik wears American shoes, and Murmansk is almost the only place in Russia where shoes are cheap. A pair of good shoes in Moscow or Jassy costs about sixty dollars. In Murmansk the correspondent was offered an excellent pair, made in Lynn, Mass., for five dollars or five pounds of sugar.

Money has little value in this far northern port. The citizen of Murmansk sniffs at a handful of ruble notes, but he is willing to talk business if you can show him a few pounds of sugar, a can of tobacco or a bottle of whiskey. A fine fox fur for which the owner refused five hundred rubles changed hands instantly for a bottle of whiskey and six ounces of tobacco.

A live reindeer highly prized alike as a draft animal and for food, sells on the Murmansk curb market for about four hundred rubles, but a man with five or ten pounds of sugar and a pocketful of cigarettes can go home with as good a reindeer as there is in the town.

ENGLISH WOMEN NOW ON ASSURED BASIS

London, June — Divergent views were expressed recently in two public speeches on the question "will women return to their homes from the factories and the fields after the war?"

F. G. Kellaway, Parliamentary secretary to the Munitions Ministry said, "women have come to stay. They have come to increase the wealth of this country. The Ministry of Munitions have recognized their worth and has acted accordingly in the arrangement of wages. That arrangement forms the charter for women in the future. It has put women on an assured basis."

Lieutenant General Sir Edward Hutton, speaking at Chertsey said

"Women understand their sphere of work far too well to interfere with men-folk when the men return from the front. Men will find their jobs all available and women will return to their homes and womanly duties in the social world quite naturally but much better for having shown what they can do in a time of great national emergency."

WESTMINSTER CHURCH HAD ANNUAL PICNIC.

Members of Westminster church and Sunday school had the annual picnic Tuesday afternoon at Ichols park. Members of the Sunday school met at the church at 2 o'clock and traveled to the park in automobiles and later in the afternoon they were joined by older members of the church. The afternoon hours were spent in playing of games and in boat riding. Paul Gilbert, Harvey Gunn and Frederick Noyes constituting the committee in charge. At 3:30 a splendid catered supper was served and although there were 150 people present instead of the expected 100, there was plenty for all and a number of packages were later sent to needy persons. Altogether it was one of the most successful picnics the church has ever held. Dr. E. B. Landis and W. J. Brady, superintendent of the Sunday school, had charge of the automobile transportation and the supper committee included Mrs. Nellie Gunn, Mrs. H. B. Kamm, and Misses Kate Hagerty and Jessie Holmes.

Rube Marquard, Brooklyn's flossy twirler, certainly has the number of his old team mates, the Giants this season.

BIGGEST UPSET IN DOPE SHEET IN 2:12 PACE

Grace Elder Defeats Margaret Margrave in Second Heat Paying $417 for a $2 Pari Mutuel Ticket.

CLEVELAND, July 9.—With the exception of the 2:12 pace each event on today's Grand Circuit card on North Randall was captured in straight heats with honors divided between favorites and outsiders.

The 2:12 pace caused the biggest upset of the afternoon. After Margaret Margrave had taken the first heat she was forced to succumb in the second to Grace Elder, which paid $417 for a $2 Pari mutuel tickets. However, Margaret Margrave captured the third and deciding heat.

The first division of the Fasig Three year old trot went to Mamie Locke, which was practically overlooked in the betting. The filly had little difficulty in taking first money but each mile developed into a battle for the place and show.

Selah Baird the favorite won the 2:20 trot rather easily.

In the 2:04 pace Hal Boy, the other successful favorite had things his own way.

RUSSIAN GRAND DUKE RELATES EXPERIENCES

Tells of Trying and Turbulent Times Following Abdication of the Romanoffs.

AMSTERDAM, July 9.—Grand Duke Alexander Michailovich brother-in-law of the former Russian emperor was interviewed at the end of June in Altodor in the Crimea by the correspondent of the Burapest Az Est according to a telegram to Dutch newspaper after the abdication of the Romanoffs, the grand duke said: "We were for days at Dulbar (near Altodor) at the home of Peter Nicolaievich all together. We owe our lives solely to that. My 6 sons and myself were on a blacklist. We scarcely hoped to escape with our lives. They took our money and our property. Our house in Petrograd was razed to the ground.

Fortunately I have a property with a vineyard in Altodor, on the produce of which my family and myself can live."

The correspondent also related that Russia might within the year again have a monarchical constitution and the grand duke asked skeptically if this would be possible. The correspondent added that Emperor Nicholas, however, would not again come to the throne, and the grand duke remarked with vivacity:

"Certainly not. He is vividly of the old system."

The correspondent also related a conversation he had with General Balbaroff who was the Lord high steward of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch former commander-in-chief of the Russian army. General Balbaroff gave him details of Nicholas Nicolaievitch's escape after being sentenced to death by the Bolsheviks. The latter had declared they would not let him go, but the simple execution of the emperor's relations but would drive them to death in a specially cruel manner. It was a Caucasian officer named Dsoliikan charged with keeping guard over the grand duke's family after they saved their lives. In order to divert suspicion he first treated the family with exceptional severity and succeeded in having their execution postponed until at least German troops arrived.

FOOD SHORTAGE IN AUSTRIA MORE ACUTE

Government Cuts Down on Rations for Civilian Population—All Emaciated and Underfed.

Paris, July 9.—The food shortage in Austria is growing more acute, according to Herbert Mayer, of Chicago, Secretary of Charles J. Vopicka, American minister to Roumania. Mr. Mayer has just returned from Jassy by way of Austria and Switzerland.

At Vienna the train on which he traveled stopped in the railroad yard and a crowd of hungry and ragged men and women scrambled abroad and begged for food. All looked emaciated and underfed. When the passengers threw out scraps of food the Austrians made a rush and devoured it ravenously. They declared that the government was giving them only enough food to keep them from actual starvation.

The train was in charge of a German colonel and the passengers were permitted to leave the cars at various stations, where always an Austrian armed guard was present. No attempt was made to draw the blinds in the passenger cars or curtail the customary privileges of travelers.

The Americans were much impressed by the almost complete absence of workers in the fields and on the farms in Austria. At a station between Orsova and Budapest a mob of about a hundred Austrian soldiers and civilians attempted to board the train and were put off at point of a pistol. Some of them were endeavoring to reach home, others were trying to reach points where food was more plentiful.

A German major at one station told the Americans that the Germans were not taking Austria's entry into the war seriously, because they knew that not more than 20,000 American soldiers were in France.

"The United States is not sufficiently interested in the war to send over a greater number," he said.

EMPEROR ACCEPTS MINISTER'S RESIGNATION

Dr. Von Kuehlmann No Longer Foreign Minister of Germany.

Paris, July 9.—The German emperor has accepted the resignation of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary, according to a Basel dispatch to the Havas Agency. It is expected that Admiral von Hintze, the German minister at Christiania and formerly minister to Mexico will succeed him.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann became foreign minister August 6, 1917, succeeding Dr. Alfred F. M. Zimmermann whose retirement closely followed the exposure of his plot to involve the United States in war with Mexico and Japan in the event that this country showed any inclination to join the allies.

Dr. Kuehlmann's tenure of the foreign office appeared to be more than usually successful until June 25 last when he appeared before the reichstag to discuss the political aspects of the situation facing Germany. During his address he said:

"In view of the magnitude of this war and the number of powers including those from overseas, that are engaged its end can hardly be expected thru military decisions alone and without recourse to diplomatic negotiations."

The statement which flatly contradicted speeches by the German emperor, who only a short time before had referred to peace being won by "the strong German sword", was received with consternation in the reichstag and with sharp criticism by the press. It was later reported that Dr. von Kuehlmann's words had been approved by General Ludendorff, the German commander on the western front.

This brought to notice rumors of friction between Ludendorff and the German crown prince and his entourage who comprise the radical Pan-Germanic elements in official circles.

Soon after the address in the reichstag, it became common knowledge that Dr. von Kuehlmann's retirement from office would be forth-coming. Some reports were to the effect that his address was intended to inform the German people that their armies could not win the war, and was delivered with the cognizance of the emperor, who, when he saw what a storm had been stirred up, resolve to make von Kuehlmann the scape goat.

Sentiment north and south is said to be unanimously behind the establishment of an American church which later may embrace the recently merged Norwegian Lutheran church in America. The bodies interested include the general synod with 475,749 communicants, the general council with 770,000 and the United Synod of the South which has 73,510 members.

INFLUX OF GERMAN COMMERCIAL AGENTS

Touton Business Men Pour In to Little Moldavian Capital.

PARIS, July 9.—There has been an influx of German commercial agents and business men into Jassy the little Moldavian capital. There are forty or fifty German military officers in Jassy, seeing that the Roumanian army is properly demobilized and they are gradually preparing the people for complete German domination. The Germans have requisitioned the building which the American legation occupied during the last eighteen months, ordering the American minister to find other quarters. The Roumanian queen has shown intense dislike of the Germans and has repeatedly refused to grant an audience requested by high officials. She, king and the royal family are living in virtual seclusion at a little village in the Carpathian mountains, 75 miles from Jassy.

After the American Red Cross and other allied missions left Roumania there was a period of intense depression in Jassy. The queen kept to her bed three days.

"Am I a traitor; do I deserve this?" she repeatedly cried as she thought of the bitter fate that country.

GERMAN SUBMITS PEACE CONDITIONS

Copenhagen July 9.—While claiming unofficial sanction and even admitting that their realization would encounter strong opposition from the German government and people George Bernhard, political editor of the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin submits the following peace conditions.

France and Italy to discuss with Germany and Austria their future frontiers without the intervention of third parties. All the German colonies to be returned.

Belgium to be restored completely as an independent state. All merchants of the central powers who have been deprived of their property overseas to be restored to their former rights of possession.

Great Britain to evacuate unconditionally all parts of the Turkish empire and Persia.

The situation before the war to be restored to Egypt.

The dardanelles on the basis of a treaty applying to the states bordering the Black Sea to be free for the passage of Russian ships.

"The time is now ripe openly to discuss peace conditions," says the writer. "Having regard to the ideal peace conditions laid down by President Wilson unanimity on the matter undoubtedly could easily be reached if a method of discussing the peace terms could only be agreed upon."

Bernhard says Germany and her allies would undoubtedly accept reasonable disarmament proposals.

GOOD RESULTS FROM THE CONVOY SYSTEM

LONDON, July 9.—Speaking in the house of commons today Sir Leo Money, parliamentary secretary to the ministry of shipping, said the percentage of ships lost while homeward bound to the United Kingdom since January 1, 1918, was rather more than one per cent. The losses of food ships for the same period was less than 1.4 per cent.

The result of the convoy system Sir Leo said, continued to improve. Since January, 1917, when the system was put into effect, 42,000,000 gross tons had been conveyed to British and French ports with a loss up to June 29 of 1.29 per cent. This included loss by the disposal of convoys thru bad weather.

Now Owe My Present Health and Strength to Vinol.

Burdett, N. Y.—"I keep house for my family of three, and raise chickens. I had a nervous breakdown, so I was unable to work. The doctor did not seem to help me, and a cousin asked me to try Vinol. It built me up—I now have a good appetite and am well and strong."—Mrs. Loyal Palmer.

There is no secret about Vinol. It owes its success to beef and cod liver peptonates, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous bodybuilding and strength creating tonics. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

WAR AIDS INDUSTRIES OF SOUTH AMERICA

Tremendous Impetus Given Certain Industries Shown by Curtailment of Articles Formerly Imported into Country—First Iron Foundry in Brazil.

Washington, July 9.—How the war has given a tremendous impetus to South American industries is shown in the curtailment of many articles formerly imported to South America from countries now at war. Attention of many South Americans is turned to manufacturing possibilities in their own countries utilizing as far as possible the raw materials available in South America.

Word has just been received here of the establishment of the first iron foundry in Brazil. The foundry has just been completed at Rio de Janeiro and has a daily capacity of between 20,000 and 30,000 tons. It is operating on native iron smelted from ore mined in the country. According to accounts reaching here it is intended to further develop the mining industry and increase the capacity of the plant as soon as possible.

Also has been established the first chemical plant in Brazil. At this plant are manufactured nitrate of potash, caustic soda, nitrate of silver and oxalic acid.

At Punta Arenas, the southernmost main land town in the world, a group of business men has undertaken the manufacture of pianos. Last year six pianos were made as an experiment and were shipped to Valparaiso where they were sold. Altho Punta Arenas is in Chile there is a duty imposed upon articles manufactured there and shipped to other parts of the same country for sale.

This duty on pianos was $50 per each, approximately $85, and in spite of this handicap the pianos were sold at prices so satisfactory that this year the sponsors for the experiment have begun the manufacture in earnest. Chilean woods are used almost exclusively for the cases and the other parts of the instruments are of Chilean origin.

Ten thousand tons of manganese ore, in great demand by the warring countries of Europe, are ready for shipment in the state of Minas, Brazil. This ore cannot be moved because of shortage of coal. It is reported that there are plenty of cars for transporting the ore, but the coal, much of which was formerly shipped from the United States, is not available.

Brazil has taken over her quinine industry and established a government monopoly in the handling of it. The government announces that it will sell directly to individuals and to firms.

The business men of Brazil are holding a big exposition of fabrics, principally cotton goods, of Brazilian manufacture, in Buenos Aires, in the effort to attract Argentine trade. One hundred and thirty factories are represented at the exposition.

The Congress of Peru has authorized President Pardo to negotiate a loan of about $1,500,000 the proceeds of which are to be used in building a railway from Huancayo to Jatunhuasi, penetrating the Peruvian coal belt, and to Huaravica in the principal iron zone of the country. The immediate reason for this enterprise is the inability of Peru to get 65,000 tons of iron piping needed for city water works in several municipalities of the country, which was ordered in the United States but which is being held up because of the war.

SOME MONEY! SOME MONEY!
Washington, D. C., July 9.—At the present time the war is costing the four principal belligerents—the United States; England, France and Germany—an aggregate sum estimated to be not less than $100,000,000,000 year. This exclusive of the cost to Italy, Austria and the several lesser powers now actively engaged in the conflict, and from whom no official statement has been forthcoming. When the struggle had reached the full volume of the extent an official statement presented to the German Reichstag gave $25,000,000,000 a year as the war bill for Germany. At the same time the British war expenditures were estimated at $37,000,000,000 a year. The cost of the war to France, in the matter of actual expenditures is somewhat less than that of Great Britain. The United States, during her first year in the world-wide setto, paid out $13,800,000,000 with the probability that the second year will see this sum doubled. It is certain that the 1918 war bills of the four principal belligerents will average not less than $25,000,000,000, or a total of $100,000,000,000.

It is impossible for the human mind to comprehend the vastness of such sum of money as $100,000,000,000. But if anybody wanted to count it, all in one-dollar bills, counting steadily at the rate of $3 a second, day and night, without stopping for a moment until the task was ended, it would take twelve hundred years to complete the work.

ARE PATRIOTIC THO HUNGRY
Paris, July 9.—To insure that the utmost limit in effort should be reached by all to defeat the Hun, hundreds of refugees arriving here refused to eat bologna because it was a meatless day. These refugees, tired and heart-sick after hours of travel, chose to go hungry rather than suffer the slightest slackening of their patriotism.

An American soldier desiring to show his affection for a certain French family by offering a box of chocolates to them, was astounded by their refusal on the ground that it was not helping to win the war by the use of sugar in that way.

Mrs. Hattie March of Chicago arrived in the city yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles E. Scott.

POSTMASTER BEIRD RESIGNS AT BLUFFS

Newspaperman Desires to be Relieved of Office at Once—Relatives of Bluffs Resident Numbered Among Those Lost at Pekin.

Bluffs, July 9.—Mrs. Harold Moore, chairman on "Food Conservation" for Bluffs' precinct gave a food exhibit at the Andre store building Saturday. The exhibit was splendid, and generous samples of eatables made from substitutes proved that pleasing and palatable dishes may be made from them. A fruit cake baked by Mrs. H. C. Finney is worthy of mention as it was delicious, nicely leed, but contained neither wheat flour nor sugar. Pie, angel food cake, corn bread, rolled oat bread, doughnuts and salads were shown. Thru the courtesy of Miss Louise Meier, any lady who attended the food show may have a type written copy of one or all recipes demonstrated.

Harold Frohwitter, aged 6 years and son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frohwitter was taken to Jacksonville Monday evening to undergo an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids.

Mrs. George Rockwood learned thru the Journal that her cousin, Clyde Wischer, wife and two children of Pekin were victims of the boat tragedy that occurred near Peoria Friday. Mr. Wischer grew to manhood at Chambersburg, Pike county, but for several years had resided at Pekin where he met and married his young wife. He is survived by three sisters and an aged father, who were called there Saturday.

Mrs. Clyde Arnold spent a portion of last week with Mrs. E. A. Shore.

Irwin Rolf was among the boys who shipped a few days ago to enlist in the army but being but sixteen years of age was rejected.

E. D. Beird, who has been the postmaster here for the past five years has tendered his resignation and trusts that same will be accepted at an early date. Mr. Beird has made good as postmaster and it is with regret that we learn of his resigning at this time. He will continue editing the Bluffs Times and thinks that even being a newspaper man is preferable to that of being postmaster.

William Vannier left Monday for an extended visit with relatives in Kansas and Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Knoepfel have returned from Chillicothe, Ohio, where they visited their son Albert who is in training there. They made the round trip by auto and report a splendid trip.

Miss Opel Lawrence is the guest of relatives at Payson and Quincy.

POTASH FROM CEMENT MILLS

According to the United States Department of Agriculture, one hundred thousand tons is the possible production of potash from cement mills in America. Every year this vast quantity of potash, equivalent to 200,000 tons of high grade German potash, is lost thru the flues of the factories making cement. Ninety per cent of this potash may be recovered, and at a low cost.

Formerly this valuable product was blown out in the form of fine dust, and in many cases was a positive nuisance. Now the dust is precipitated by one method or another and treated to recover the potash which it contains. Some firms are now saving from three to four thousand dollars worth of potash every working day, that was formerly lost.

Potash is one of the important materials used in making commercial fertilizers. For years Germany controlled most of the world's output and the coming of the war saw us shut off from this much needed plant food. Since that time many crops have suffered acutely from potash starvation.

For a time it seemed as if we must always depend on Germany for this valuable material but the activities of American chemists in utilizing waste products and opening up new sources, now bid fair to make us entirely independent of this German monopoly.

Banish That Headache

Many persons suffer with backache every morning. They think maybe they have lain in a cramped position or else got a little cold. More than likely the backache is due to their kidneys, and the timely use of Foley Kidney Pills is just what is needed for quick relief.

Mrs. J. D. Miller, 601 Clifford street, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had a severe backache and felt miserable and all played out. I bought some of Foley Kidney Pills and after taking two bottles, I can say my backache is gone, and where I used to lie awake nights with rheumatic pains, I can now sleep in comfort. Foley Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me, and I recommend them to all my acquaintances and friends."

For backache, lame back, stiff swollen joints, rheumatic pains, headaches and nervousness due to kidney disorders, Foley Kidney Pills are quickly effective, tonic and most satisfactory in results. Try them.—Adv.

Clears the Home of Moths

Old fashioned moth preventives never killed a moth or even kept him away. Mothballs are an exploded theory. They never even made the moth sick. ENOZ is a powerful chemical that makes moth and insect life impossible. As long as ENOZ is used in your home, no moth can live there, and the only thing that can spoil your clothes is wear. ENOZ is actual clothes conservation and clothes insurance. It is easy to use. We prepare it in convenient form and sell the sprayer with the liquid. Your children can use it as well as you can, without the slightest harm or fear.

Figure up the damage moths have done to furniture and rugs in your home. This year you can ill afford the loss. ENOZ will positively prevent it. It is a godsend to the home and the only positive insurance against moths in existence. ENOZ is being used all over America by manufacturers of and dealers in fine goods. And every home should have it.

It is the Greatest Invention of the Age

Sprayer and Liquid sold in combination for $1 at drug, department and hardware stores. Additional liquid, pint size, 75c; quart size, $1.00.

If your dealer hasn't it—we will send it to you prepaid upon receipt of $1.00

MORE MEN NEEDED AT RAHE AUTO SCHOOL

Local Board Receives Notice Urging Enlistments — Fifty Per Cent of 1918 Registrants Make No Claims for Deferred Classification.

The Morgan county local board yesterday received a special message from Adjutant General Dickson's office in Springfield urging that a number of men be sent from this county to the Rahe automobile school in Kansas City. It seems that call 612 is still open and that five or six men are wanted from this county. Roy H. Covington of Murrayville was inducted into the service for this school by the board at Springfield Monday and is to leave today for Kansas City. He will make the twelfth man from Morgan county to enter upon this work.

LIEUT. STRAWN ENROUTE TO DALLAS FIELD

Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Strawn arrived in Jacksonville yesterday enroute from Dayton, Ohio, to Dallas, Texas. Lieut. Strawn has been stationed at the Wilbur Wright Flying Field near Dayton. This field is considered largely as an experimental school, as it is there that many of the new war devices and flying craft are first tried out. The field is considered more dangerous in comparison with other fields on this account.

While there the lieutenant had one disagreeable experience, that of witnessing a two seater plane fall from an altitude of 15,000. Both occupants of the craft were instantly killed. The lieutenant's recent orders are for duty at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, although he expects to be sent overseas within a short time. Lieut. Strawn and wife expect to leave this morning for Dallas.

COTTON WORKERS WITHOUT EMPLOYMENT

Copenhagen, June — Protesting against the embargo imposed by Entente nations on the shipment of raw materials to Denmark, the National Tidende says that stocks of cotton and wool worth 12,000,000 kroner, bought and paid for by Danish importers, are lying in Texas and South America while the majority of workmen in the Danish cotton industry are without employment owing to lack of material.

Announcement that the allied governments would license the shipment to Denmark of fancy goods, the Tidende said, would be regarded by the Danish population with bitter irony.

From the way the Senators have been going of late there doesn't seem to be much the matter with Clark Griffith's pastimes.

MANY FOREIGNERS INTERMED IN HOLLAND

The Hague, June 29.—There are now in Holland 147,748 foreigners, who as a result of the war, are more or less in charge of the public authorities. This number includes 100,000 refugees, 3,130 British prisoners of war, 1,607 German prisoners of war, 30,523 Belgians interned, 1428 British interned, and 6,640 Belgian families.

LAST OF FLOOD VICTIMS CARED FOR

Peking, June — The American Red Cross Flood Relief Camp at Tientsin with its 1,100 families aggregating 4,380 persons sheltered there when river floods drove them from their own homes is now only a memory. Every family having been located in homes provided for them of their own choice. The last 221 families, numbering 1,205 souls were placed in a village built for them by generous Chinese property owners outside of the foreign concession where the camp was established. Every sign of the camp has been wiped out and the grounds restored to their original state.

LIFE ON TRANSPORT IS SYSTEMATIC ONE

Plans Carefully Worked Out for Procedure in Case of Attack by Enemy Submarine—Amusing Incident on Board British Transport.

London, July 9.—(Correspondent of the Associated Press.)—Altho troops ships that bring over American soldiers are so well protected that the submarine menace is virtually negligible, submarines thruout the trip are probably the chief subject of conversation. Usually the references to the undersea terror are jocular, but it is apparent that much serious thought is given to U-boats and that they loom large in imagination. This applies to officers as well as to the men. All say frankly they have no desire for a brush with the sinking, enemy craft.

The reason for this was neatly put by a major of infantry who recently landed in England. "Fighting submarines," he said, "isn't our game." In that pithy explanation he summed up the soldier's attitude exactly.

Not an Army Game. Fighting the submarines isn't the army's game, and soldiers can't play it because they don't know how. If their ship is attacked there is nothing for them to do except march on deck and prepare to take to the lifeboats. Defensive measures rest with the transport's naval guns and with the escorting destroyers. They, as the soldier sees it, have all the fun, while the soldier must stand by, eager to fight, but helpless to take a hand.

The army officers feel keenly their responsibility in such an unfamiliar situation. It devolves upon them to clear the ship of every man and get them into their proper boats.

In order to do this with the greatest possible celerity and precision, the commanding military officer and his assistants carefully work out their plans before the ship sails. On a large vessel carrying several thousand troops it is necessary to quarter the men on all decks, some far down in the vessel. The task, then, is to get them all up on the boat deck with the least delay and without confusion.

Boat drills begin soon after the ship leaves port. Each man is assigned to a particular boat, and it is highly important that when the troops in response to the alarm signal, are moving up from the lower decks that there be no interference and congestion on the stairways.

The problem presents a number of difficulties, each of which is studied with care. So perfect was the system employed on one big transport that the 6,000 troops on board could be brought from all parts of the ship to their stations on the upper deck within less than five minutes.

Strict Precautions. When a transport approaches the submarine zone, precautions are increased. All officers and men must wear life preservers constantly and when the ship has got well into the zone, orders are issued for the men to sleep in their clothes.

No lights of course, are shown. To guard against the inadvertent striking of a match whose flare might reveal the vessel's presence to a lurking submarine, no one is permitted on deck after dark with the exception of the ship's crew. Sentries are posted to see that this order is strictly obeyed. An amusing incident occurred on a huge British transport which was carrying a particularly large number of American soldiers.

About nine o'clock one evening, while full speed was being made thru the heart of the zone, a sentry noticed a ray of light playing in a small circle on a distant part of the deck which he was guarding. He called another sentry and together they crept toward the point where the light mysteriously had appeared. The night was very dark and at first the sentries could see nothing. Then they made out the figure of a man bending over the deck. They immediately seized him and told him he was under arrest. "But I'm the watch officer in command of the ship," the prisoner exclaimed. "I have to use a flashlight for the work I'm doing here."

However, the sentries had their orders. They were to arrest anybody that showed a light on deck. So their captive protested in vain. The soldiers called their officer of the day. He decided to turn the prisoner over to the ship's captain. Up to the bridge the watch officer was taken and when the captain saw him and heard the details, he almost choked with laughter. It will be a long time before that officer is permitted to forget his arrest on his own ship by American soldiers.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING FOR WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Act Recently Passed by Congress Provides Comprehensive Scheme of Rehabilitation for Wounded and Disabled Men—Task is Large One.

Washington, June 29.—Every man who goes in the army or navy is now certain that if the Germans "shoot him up" he will not be compelled to sell pencils, or lace laces to eke out an insufficient pension, or be immured in a soldiers' home to rust out the years until death comes to his relief.

The United States government has studied the whole subject of vocational rehabilitation of the wounded and disabled soldiers. The experience of all the belligerents has been gone over carefully and the marvels of re-education accomplished by some of them are fully noted. The Federal Board for Vocational Education has been at work on the proposition since August, 1917. The result is to be found in the Smith-Sears act, which passed Congress June 11, and provides a comprehensive scheme of rehabilitation for wounded and disabled men.

Plan Tried in Canada. Canada has been doing this work with great success and all of the Canadian experience has been freely given to the United States. The director of that work has been actively co-operating with the Federal board for Vocational Education, and was sent by his government to appear before the Senate committee and testify at the hearings of the bill, which passed both Senate and House without a dissenting vote.

It has been demonstrated in Europe and Canada, that no matter how badly a man may be wrecked physically, as a general rule he still has latent capabilities for something useful. If those capabilities may be specialized into some line of trade the wounded soldier already knew, that is done. The experience he has had and his knowledge of the trade is a valuable foundation to build upon.

If the trade he is familiar with does not offer an opening then he is induced to enter an allied trade where his previous knowledge will be of value. In some cases the man is entirely re-educated and for an occupation entirely different from that which he had previously followed.

Can a Man's Work. It is seldom that a man is so badly shattered that he cannot be trained to something useful, which he can pursue in the consciousness that he is doing a man's work for a man's pay and that he is back in the current of civil life, a useful and happy citizen who asks no odds of anyone when it comes to making a living.

The task to be discharged by the Federal Board for Vocational Education is a large one. Figures from the various countries show that for each million men in the armies, there will be one percent, or ten thousand men to be re-educated. This does not include the wounded who are able to and eventually do return to their occupations.

Few Cases of Blindness.

This does not necessarily mean that these are "dismemberment" cases. The general idea is of a legless, armless or sightless man. They are far in the minority. The figures which have now got down to fairly accurate averages, show that of the 10,000 half of them will be purely "medical" as against "surgical" cases. And of the 5,000 that are "surgical" that is, which need the attention of a surgeon as against that of the physician, 500 will be cases of "dismemberment," where the men have lost members of the body. Three hundred will be cases where a leg has been lost and two hundred where arms have been lost. In 41,000 returned invalided Canadians there were less than forty cases of blindness.

The real problem is the man who has suffered profound shocks to his system and perhaps been rendered incapable of standing the strain of his former occupation. A boiler-maker for instance comes out with shell-shock and his nervous system in tatters. He could not stand the racket in a boiler factory, but he with his knowledge of iron and steel working could very easily be made into say—an expert lathe operator or where there is no noise. And so on along the whole line of readjustments.

Federal Board for Vocational Education is the source of much of the war training course an doing ahead with plans to begin the re-educational work at an early date. It is proposed, instead of concentrating the men to be re-educated in large hospital shops, to use the wonderful facilities afforded by the many technical and agricultural schools of the country as far as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDougall, son Harold McDougall and Mr. and Mrs. James Hennessey will leave in the McDougall Studebaker car tomorrow morning for an automobile trip to Camp Sherman, near Chillicothe, Ohio. They will go to visit George L. Elliott, who is in the army service at that camp, having been transferred there from Camp Taylor. Mr. Elliott is a brother of Mrs. McDougall and Mrs. Hennessey. The party will journey direct from Jacksonville to Indianapolis and thence eastward to the Ohio camp. The distance is approximately 500 miles from Jacksonville and they expect to be gone a week or ten days.

AUTOISTS TRAVEL FROM COAST TO COAST.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brubson of Kansas City were automobile tourists in the city yesterday and were guests at the home of Mrs. Brubson's aunt Mrs. Helm. As indicated, they are Kansas City residents and are taking a long automobile tour, their speedometer thus far having registered 4,600 miles. They traveled east clear to the Atlantic coast, spending some time in eastern cities and are now on the way to Seattle, Wash. Mr. Brubson had a very muddy car and declared that Illinois roads were the worst that he had encountered anywhere on his long journey.

Mrs. Mary Leary and her daughter, Miss Celia, will leave today for Chicago to make their home for at least a number of months. Miss Mio and Clement Leary, also members of the family, are now employed in Chicago. Mrs. Leary and children together with her brother Daniel Shields have leased a furnished flat and for the present at least will be residents of Chicago.

EGBERT HUNT DESCRIBES SINKING OF STEAMER

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunt Was Passenger on the Ill-Fated Steamer Columbia—Had Narrow Escape—Describes Scenes Which Followed Catastrophe—Helped Save Women from Drowning.

As already mentioned, Egbert Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunt, was one of the passengers on the Steamer Columbia when it was wrecked near Peoria early Saturday morning. The young man has been a resident of Peoria for some time, where he holds an excellent position in the glucose factory. His parents were not aware that he was a passenger on the steamer until they received a telegram Saturday afternoon telling them of his safety. In a letter received yesterday by Mr. Hunt the Jacksonville man gives a description of the scene which followed the sinking of the steamer and he tells something of the sad scenes in Peoria and Peoria as relatives and friends came to identify the scores of people who met death as the result of the accident. The letter, which was written Monday, follows:

Peoria, Ill., July 8, 1918.

Dear Mother: I suppose you have received my telegram, saying that I was on the boat, at least Lohman said dad said you had—and knew I was safe. I told you I was saved—but I guess I saved myself mostly, I don't like to talk much about it, but the whole town is wild and everyone is talking. You can't forget it.

Two in Party Drowned. I guess about the best way to tell it is to start from the first. There were about ten of us in the bunch and two were drowned.

I guess you know about where we were in the river when it happened, about half way between Peoria and Peoria. I was dancing when it hit the first time and the music stopped, and then started again. We danced a few minutes more and it hit something again and the music stopped, then started.

We started dancing—that dance ended and I said to my friend, "let us go up on top and see what it was we hit." She said all right and we started, and got about half way up the music started again and instead of going down, the girl said, "let's go on up." We crossed to the side which hit. We looked and saw water coming in. I was just getting ready to say, I didn't believe water was coming in, because they did not stop the boat, but I didn't get it all out. I started to sink and before I got across to the other side she was tilted clear over on one side. I gave the girl a shove ahead of me. She caught the opposite rail and held it to. I felt myself falling and grabbed her foot, then I pulled myself up. I was just hanging there and how she held on, with me hanging to her foot until I got a hold and climbed up. I don't know. The girl carried her over the rail and the boat settled. We were safe for awhile I knew. I was not afraid, when I saw the bank and found the girl was not afraid of the water. I left her a few minutes and helped some more women, we were letting the men take care of themselves.

Fell Thru Boat Side.

We had crawled about half way down the side of the boat by that time, she was sitting on a beam that was broken and I was standing on a closed side of the wall. I thought it was safe, but it broke and I felt myself falling. I fell about ten feet and grabbed a post. I didn't know what it was, it was so dark. I crawled up thru the hole I had made and pitched up a girl, about 12 or 14 years old and when I got out the girl I was with from the first thought I was a goner and had just started to get frightened. When she saw me she braced up, and I was glad of that for it made her much easier to take care of.

I told a fellow about the people who were in the hold and he got in and handed them out to me. I only saw the little girl when I was down there for I only had one match and it burned very little. I saw lots of dead people who were killed outright, but he found about ten living ones and left the dead ones. He had plenty of matches so he handed out some life preservers and I had a hard time keeping men from taking them.

We waited about an hour until help came from the shore. All I have told happened in about half an hour. We waited another half hour before help began to come. The boat only had two life boats working until help came. The boat sank about 11:45 and I got off about 2 a. m. I was lucky in getting off then. The girl was one of the last women to leave the boat, and the next boat came and they shouted "Now for the men." Some one shoved me and I fell about 10 feet into the river. I landed and the seat of my trousers got wet, the first water I was in. The hole in the big boat happened to be dry so you see I was dry. The girl didn't get wet either. Many people who were saved, didn't get wet.

I was getting a little nervous by the time I got off. I was cold. I had been dancing and had gotten pretty well "warmed up" but I didn't take cold. I had a clear head, and I was sure glad of it. We got on the train and went to Peoria. I took the girl home and went back to the depot. I got home about 4:30 a. m., got up at 6 and went to work.

Scene of Death Terrible.

The plant has been all torn up, almost everyone had a close relative or friend on the boat. I guess I have told you about enough, only about one half thru. I just told you my experience, all the bunch did their bit of the work and more. I know I never will forget the cries, groans and screams I heard, Hell could not be any worse.

What I have told you may sound awful, but it is all true. You don't know what some of us went thru. I wrote you folks this letter telling about myself. I will write more some other time. I guess everyone will be asking about me after what was in the paper, just tell them I got off safe but had plenty of experience. They may not believe all I have written, but it is the truth.

My nerves began to break about Sunday noon I got to thinking about it too much, I guess. You know I had so little sleep when I was home, so much going on, that I guess the excitement kept me going. I am dead tired now but will be all right in a day or two.

Lohman came Sunday. Fred got him a job and I think he will get along fine. I never wrote so much, in a letter before, but I could write twice as much and then not tell it all or stretch it. Sorry I was on it at times, but glad other times, but I never want to be in another.

Your son,
Egbert Hunt.

Y. M. C. A. AND Y. W. C. A. COMBINE IN FALL CAMPAIGN

To finance its war work for the coming year the budget of the Y. W. C. A. will be included in the $112,000,000 drive of the Young Men's Christian Association, which will probably take place in October, according to information just received here.

Plans are now being perfected for the big campaign thru the separate state organizations of the Y. M. C. A. thruout the Central Military Department.

The Army Y. M. C. A. is announced will require a total of $97,000,000 to carry on its work for the soldiers at home and abroad. It is estimated that the work of the Young Women's Christian Association in the army camps will require at least $15,000,000. Upon the advice of Dr. John R. Mott, George W. Perkins and other leaders in the movement it was decided at a conference held in Chicago recently to combine the campaigns of the two allied organizations.

In the approaching drive the country will be divided into departments similar in area to those of the army. The Eastern Department, embracing New York City, will be asked to give 44 per cent of the fund or nearly $50,000,000; the Central Department, which extends from Ohio to Colorado and from the Canadian line to Kentucky, will be asked for 24 per cent of the fund, or $38,000,000. The Western or Pacific Department will raise five per cent; the Southern, four per cent, and the Southern, three per cent.

George W. Perkins of New York is chairman of the campaign committee.

In purchasing a second 25 lbs. lot, permission must be obtained from the local Food Administrator.

Grocers are required to keep a record showing to whom sugar was sold, address, amount, date and number of people in the household, making up the first of each month a complete statement on all sales, containing information noted above.

Consumers are permitted to buy not to exceed 3 lbs. per month for each person in the household. All sales will be carefully checked and violations of the rule will subject the person to having supply cut off.

The U. S. Food Administration expects the public to be patriotic and observe the rules, as the saving of sugar has become a real necessity.

Food Administrator.

PETITION FILING PLANS OUTLINED

Saturday July 13th Is First Date State Candidates Can File for Office—Secretary of State Announces System to Be Followed.

The State Journal says that there will be no waiting line at the door of the secretary of state on the morning of Saturday, July 13, the first day for filing petitions for the September primary. Neither will there be any fancy stunts with special delivery mail and express.

Secretary of State Lewis L. Emmerson has removed the possibility of usual scramble for first places on the ballots at the primary, by the announcement that petitions sent thru the mail will be filed first, and that these must be sent in the regular way—not as special delivery or registered mail.

No petitions will be received before filing day, and any which are delivered in the mail before that time will be returned.

The mail will be received by the filing department in the usual manner and the petitions will be filed in the order in which they are opened. Mr. Emmerson believes this will be fair to everyone and will remove any chance of discrimination. The postmark date on the envelope will have nothing to do with it. The order will be determined solely by the order in which the package is reached by the clerks.

Heretofore, owing to uncertainty as to the method to be pursued in the filing of petitions, there has been a waiting line at the door, some petitions have been sent by special delivery, some by registered mail and some by express. The result was great confusion and the duplication of many positions. By following one method, Secretary Emmerson hopes to remove all confusion and increase efficiency.

In a letter yesterday, State Labor Administrator Bishop, expressed his deep appreciation of the work of the committee of business men in Jacksonville, who conducted the canvass for emergency help for farm work. Mr. Bishop has asked for and received the names of the men composing that committee.

Use Canvass at Threshing Time—in some counties the threshermen are urged to use two canvasses of suitable size, one to be placed at the front of the machine, under the feeder, the other at the side of the machine, under the grain elevator and spout. In Woodford County each threshing club was asked to furnish 6 canvass wagon covers to cover loads of bundles at night on which to start threshing early in the morning.

Threshing Rates Varies in Different Counties—in Vermillion County the prices for threshing oats and wheat are 3 and 5 cents respectively, in Sangamon county 3 1-2 and 7, in Tazewell County 3 and 6, in Pike county 4 1-2 and 6 1-2 cents, in Woodford county 3 and 6. In the last county nine operators, in a conference of seventy, favored 2 1-2 cents for oats and 5 cents for wheat.

Basket Racks—in building basket racks the object is to hold the corners of the load. The mistake is often made of building a rack with straight, high sides that make high pitching. The best plan is to build the end about 4 feet high and let the sides consist mainly of braces running from the ends down to the middle of the sides of the rack. With this style of rack the pitcher can put on his own load and thus do away with one man with each wagon.

Poultry Pointers—Swat the rooster, smite the mice and lice, preserve eggs for home use, retain the early pullets for winter laying and breeding, cut out poor layers, grow roots for winter feeding, and plan proper housing, for winter egg production.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK.

Kansas City Stock Yards, July 9.—Smaller receipts of cattle last week, and the National holiday, kept trade down, outgo of stockers and feeders only 6,000 head, which was 2,000 less than during previous week. A year ago, shortage of cars was bringing in many more cattle than are coming this year and shipments out were 5,000 greater during the corresponding week last year, than they were last week. However, the fall trade is opening up and the big stocker movement will soon be on. Receipts here Monday of this week were 17,000 head, the best run of the season. Country demand is changing from stockers, to steers weighing 850 to 1,000 lbs., the kind that can be grazed till fall and then finished on new corn. This kind is selling at $11.50 to $13.00. There is also a demand for heavier steers for a quick finish. Illinois feeders paying $16 to $16.40 for that kind within the last week. Oklahoma is ending cattle freely and as the greater part of that state is now tick free, it puts more cattle on the stocker and feeder market, sales of these Monday of this week at $8.25 to $11.50, weights 700 to 1,000 lbs. Stock cows and heifers are holding steady at $8 to $9.50, but stock calves are draggy and selling at bargain rates, packers taking calves weighing 300 to 400 lbs. Monday, at $8 to $11.00 which was 50 cents lower than last week. Stock hogs sold 25 to 50c lower last week, at $16.25 to $16.40, and while they were stronger Monday, no sales were above $16.50. Feeding lambs are beginning to come from the range country and will be plentiful in a few weeks, sales now around $15.00, as compared with $18.00 for good fat lambs. Breeding ewes bring $12 to $16.50, choice black face yearlings at the latter price.—J. A. Rickart, Market correspondent.
